

30 Days of Reflection (Sample)

Day 1: Gratitude (الشكر)

Arabic: الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ

Transliteration: Al-hamdu lillah

English: "All praise is due to Allah."

Reflection: Gratitude transforms what we have into enough. Begin and end each day by identifying three blessings, no matter how small.

Action for Today: Keep a gratitude journal. Write down three things you're thankful for today.

Day 2: Patience (الصبر)

Arabic: إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الصَّابِرِينَ

Transliteration: Inna Allaha ma'a as-sabireen

English: "Indeed, Allah is with the patient." (Quran 2:153)

Reflection: Patience isn't passive waiting—it's active trust in Allah's timing and wisdom.

Action for Today: When faced with difficulty, pause and make dua before reacting.

Day 3: Forgiveness (المغفرة)

Arabic: وَالْعَافِينَ عَنِ النَّاسِ

Transliteration: Wal-'afina 'an an-nas

English: "And [those who] pardon the people" (Quran 3:134)

Reflection: Holding grudges weighs down the heart. Forgiveness frees you more than the other person.

Action for Today: Think of someone who wronged you. Make dua for them.

Day 4: Charity (الصدقة)

Arabic: مَنْ تَصَدَّقَ

Transliteration: Man tasaddaqa

English: "Whoever gives charity"

Hadith: "Charity does not decrease wealth." (Muslim)

Action for Today: Give something—money, time, a smile, or kind words.

Day 5: Humility (التواضع)

Arabic: وَاخْفِضْ جَنَاحَكَ

Transliteration: Wakhfid janahaka

English: "And lower your wing" (Quran 17:24)

Reflection: True strength lies in gentleness. Knowledge without humility is arrogance.

Action for Today: Acknowledge something you don't know. Ask someone to teach you.
